Amidst the enchanting streets of Belluno, at the beginning of Via Feltre, stands an apartment that encapsulates the essence of historical charm and modernity. This Liberty-style building, steeped in history, is undergoing a revival through a comprehensive renovation while faithfully preserving its original character.

The ground floor hosts a 50 sqm two-room apartment, presenting itself as a haven of comfort in the vibrant heart of the city. A harmonious blend of practicality and style, where every detail is designed to create an extraordinary living experience.

Crossing the threshold, the avenue of renovated spaces unfolds like a blank canvas ready to embrace your most precious moments. The welcoming entrance gently leads you into the living area, where an open kitchen becomes the pulsating heart of daily life—a perfect setting to create unforgettable memories.

From here, a step guides you to the spacious double bedroom, a retreat of tranquility and comfort. The full bathroom, enriched with a modern shower enclosure and illuminated by a window, adds a touch of luxury and funct...
