DESCRIPTION

If you are looking for a home just a few minutes drive from Agordo, but in a quieter setting, this attic is ideal.

In Voltago Agordino, just a few kilometers from Luxottica and a little more than half an hour from the main tourist resorts of the Dolomites, we are selling a spacious attic for renovation.

The attic is located on the second floor of a small building and consists of a large entrance hall, an eat-in kitchen, a living room, two bedrooms and two bathrooms. From the two terraces with views of the surrounding peaks, it will not be difficult to imagine a renovation of this attic space so that it meets your needs.

For the little ones or four-legged friends, there is a private garden!

There is also the possibility of purchasing a garage at the price of € 10,000.
